

Ariane Stallard, M.S.

Ariane Stallard serves as a nonscientific board member for Pearl IRB and has over 20 years of diverse business experience. Her expertise in communications and training enable her to her make important contributions and enrich IRB insight.

Ariane's work experience includes such organizations as Macy's and Flagstar Bank. She currently works with companies and employees to increase performance and profitability as an Account Executive at Ivy Tech Community College. Ariane is also highly involved in the Indianapolis community as a volunteer at J.R.'s Food Pantry and Girls Inc., teaching and motivating youth to have strength, confidence, and the courage to make positive changes in their lives.

Ariane earned her undergraduate degree in Business Management from Indiana University, and a Masters of Science in Management with a concentration in Strategic Planning from Indiana Wesleyan.